Aimco Announces Steve Witten to Advise Chairman & CEO

DENVER, CO., March 11, 2019 – Apartment Investment and Management Company (“Aimco”), is pleased to announce that long-term industry veteran Steve Witten will focus on acquisitions as Senior Advisor to the Chairman and CEO.

Steve Witten

Steve has over forty years’ experience in the multifamily industry; the last twenty with Marcus & Millichap where he was a founding member of the Institutional Property Advisors (IPA) group. Considered one of the most respected Institutional multifamily brokers in the country, Steve “set the standard for professionalism and integrity in the multifamily industry” and has closed more than $12 billion in major multifamily sales.

Based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Steve’s primary focus will be to provide support to Aimco’s planned increase in its multifamily portfolio in the tri-counties of Palm Beach, Broward and Miami-Dade.

Steve grew up in New Haven, Connecticut; graduated from Temple University in Philadelphia in 1972; and pursued a master’s degree in behavioral psychology at the University of Pennsylvania. He completed the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) program in 1984, speaks regularly throughout the United States, and is considered one of the nation’s foremost authorities on the multifamily industry.

Terry Considine, Aimco Chairman and CEO commented, “Steve has long experience and great insight in multifamily investment. More, Steve is a good friend. Aimco and I will benefit greatly from his focus on expanding our South Florida portfolio.”

Steve can be reached at: steve.witten@aimco.com or (954) 706-9111.
